JAMERSON BOWLING ALLEY, Appomattox

In apologizing for the inconvenience experienced by some of our patrons during the cleaning and painting of our water tank, we feel they should know that this inconvenience was not occasioned by any trouble at the plant but by some condition at the school whereby every minute and a half, day and night, 100 gallons of water was being turned into the sewer main. Provision had been made, before the work started to take care of all our patrons but because of the condition which existed at the school, sufficient pressure could not be built up to carry the water to the higher points.

During the six days while our tank was being repaired, we pumped 720,000 gallons of water which is nearly three times the normal consumption by the town.

Again we thank you for your patience.

Auto's Silence Is Important

One of the most appealing features of a new car is its silence. Keeping it noiseless is a matter of correct maintenance right from the start for it is a fact that body bolts are inclined to loosen most rapidly when the car is new. They should be tightened at the end of the first 500 miles and again at 7,500. The task requires but a few minutes and costs little enough to justify having it done.

Hand Painting of China Stages Current Revival

China painting, an accomplishment boasted by almost every young woman around 1900 when it was at its peak, is coming back, says Mrs. Jessie L. Wood, Michigan artist.

"China painting is being taught in the schools and more space is being devoted to it in the art magazines," says Mrs. Wood, a veteran teacher of china painting, but now a painter in oils. "But in 1900 we did mostly flowers. Now the work is in conventional designs.

"It's true there were some horrible things perpetrated in the name of art by some of the china painters, but probably the fad served a good purpose in arousing an interest in art and making the young girls appreciate paintings they saw. Mineral paints are used and china is a difficult medium on which to work because of its rapid drying. The painting was dried in kilns and the colors were always changed by the heat. Some results were lovely. I still have a set of china and many painted pieces from that time."

Auto Liability Insurance

Motorists who carry liability insurance not only should know the amounts of the coverage limits, but they also should understand exactly what those limits mean. For example, let it be assumed that a motorist carrying a standard limit $5,000-$10,000 policy is involved in an accident in which more than one person in the other car is killed or injured and a judgment of $10,000 is rendered against the assured. Assume further that as frequently occurs—three persons are injured and judgments in their favor are rendered in the amounts of $7,000, $2,000 and $1,000. The assured carrying a $5,000-$10,000 liability policy must pay $2,000 of the $7,000 judgment himself because the policy sets forth definitely that the limit for one person cannot exceed $5,000. Motorists should know that this is not a "trick" feature nor is it found in the policy of any single company. It is standard in all liability policies.

Insomnia May Be an Idea

If insomnia troubles you, it may be an unpremeditated effort, trying to break through the dark folds and crevices of your brain, according to Dr. Elliot D. Hutchinson, assistant professor of psychology at the University of Rochester. Hutchinson states that more than 80 per cent of artists, writers, musicians, scientists and other creative persons interviewed have moments of "insight" when troublesome problems suddenly clear up. Such creative insight, he believes, is the result of hard thinking, long effort without apparent results, a period of emotional irritability and high tension, followed by a period when you may forget the problem entirely.

Good Care of Clothes Will Cut Living Costs

There's a lot more amount of pin money to be picked up by thrifty wives right in Friend Husband's clothes closet. Put in the pockets of the suit he will wear tomorrow, however, but merely in the care of the same.

Since most of the nation's $1,400,000 wives take care of their husband's clothes anyhow, they might as well save them $40 to $100 a year on hubby's wardrobe yet keep him better groomed than ever by following a few simple rules, according to Tony Williams, a New York designer, who says wardrobes for a goodly section of the nation's best dressed men.

Suits last from 25 to 40 per cent longer and hold their creases better if they are always hung, preferably on shaped wooden hangers, to points out. Suits are made of wool not only because it is an excellent insulator against both heat and cold but because it springs back into shape when allowed to hang, he explained.

Trousers should always be hung from the bottom, if possible. Their weight helps pull them back into perfect shape. It is also worth the trouble to brush the dust and dirt out of trouser cuffs before hanging, he declares.

A press will last longer if the suit is also allowed to hang for a day after pressing, as this sets the creases firmly. Suits themselves will last longer if they get a day's rest between wearings, even if the Old Man has only two outfits.

When sending the Mister's shoes to be repaired, it is well to remember that rubber heels are not only more comfortable and longer wearing than leather, but hold shape and remain trimmer, a survey reveals that 85 per cent of the nation's females prefer them anyhow.

New Inspection Of Cars Now On in Virginia

Yesterday, Wednesday, May 1 was the beginning of a new automobile inspection period. All cars in the state must bear a new inspection seal before June 1, according to Col. M.S. Battle, Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

"Come early," the director urges, "and avoid the rush!"

Supplies for the use of the 1,260 inspection stations were mailed out to reach them before the first of May. The new stickers are applegreen on aluminum, and carry pictures of the three hand signals on the reverse side as well as the admonition to drivers, "Slow Down After Sundown and Dim Your Lights."

Our inspection last fall showed that about six out of every ten cars needed repair or adjustment," Col. Battle said. "This figure proves that inspection is necessary, since it takes a safe car in the hands of a safe driver to insure safe motoring."

Buckingham Court To Convene May 14

The next Buckingham court convenes on May 14. With the death of Buckingham commonwealth's attorney, Claude Wood, a vacancy exists which must be filled by appointment or special election. Unless Judge Joel Flood appoints Mr. Wood's successor before May 14, it is likely that the commonwealth's attorney of an adjoining county will be designated to serve for the next term. It is understood that there may be more than one aspirant for the vacancy.

Crop Loan Totals Released

R. B. Hudgins has received notice this morning from J. K. Andrews, field supervisor. Emergency crop and feed loan office, that in 1939 the office has made loans to 57 farmers in Appomattox county, totaling $3,130.00, which has been repaid 100 per cent.

Mr. Hudgins states that while this is unusual, collections in Appomattox have been good. The emergency crop and feed loan office has granted 1,191 loans to Appomattox county farmers, totaling $68,516.00. There is today outstanding from all the years $6,370-00, which gives an all-time collection percentage in Appomattox county of almost 90 per cent, which is a good record.

He says that it is conservative to say that farmers in Appomattox county have saved well over $10,000.00 by using this credit and saving the difference between time and cash prices.

Mass Meeting June 1st. To Name Delegates

There will be a mass meeting of the Democratic voters of Appomattox county at the court house on Saturday, June 1, at 2:00 P.M. for the purpose of electing delegates to the state Democratic convention in Roanoke on June 14.

The date for the county meeting was announced following a meeting of the Democratic committee of Appomattox county here last Saturday.

The county will be entitled to fourteen votes at the state convention, two more than it had at the 1936 state convention in Norfolk. However, it is likely that more than fourteen delegates will be named, in which event each delegate will have a fraction of a vote.

The date of the county mass meeting here is the same as that of the opening day of the June term of the circuit court, which always draws a large attendance.

Local party leaders also call attention to the fact that May 4 is the deadline for paying capitation taxes to be eligible to vote in this primary a n d general election. U. S. Senator Harry Flood Byrd and Congressman P. H. Drewry come up for nomination and election this year, in addition to the presidential election.

It was announced that the county treasurer's office would remain open until 3 P. M. this Saturday to receive payment of capitation taxes, instead of observing the usual Saturday closing hour of 12 noon. However, to avoid last minute crowds, it is urged upon all prospective voters that they get this important matter attended to at once.

New County Library Is Proving Popular

The answer is "yes"...in case you are wondering if the public is using the new county public library. During the period since the library was opened on April 12 and the first of May, the library loaned a total of 1,338 books, according to Miss Velec Ramsey, librarian.... which is evidence that the public is finding the new library very useful.

However, if 1,338 books sounds like a bit of books, consider the rest of Miss Ramsey's report: the total number of books used from the Appomattox county circulating library, including Appomattox high school, Pamplin high school, Carver Training school and the library itself, 7,5271.

He was chairman o f the Democratic party for Buckingham county, past master of Dillwyn Masonic Lodge, a World War veteran, president of the Rotarian club, member of the State Bar Association He represented Appomattox and Buckingham in the general assembly in the 1926 session and was serving his fourth term as commonwealth's attorney. He was an active member of the Dillwyn Baptist church. He was also a widely-known sportsman.

His father, A.C. Wood, is chairman of the board of supervisors of Buckingham county.

Local School Makes Study Of Crime And Its Cure

Some interesting open forum topics are now being discussed each week at the Appomattox high school on Wednesdays at 10:30. Already the subjects: Does Crime Pay, and What Is Crime have been taken up. The next topic scheduled is What the County or State Can Do to Help Prevent Crime. The public is invited to attend these discussions. Each class will make a contribution to the general problem.

Other state-wide problems will follow each week, Principal L. Crawley says that in just a few years these same pupils will be in important county and state positions and it is time now to be thinking about some of our unsolved problems.
